The Committee shall assist the Board in fulfilling its fiduciary responsibilities by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities described in this Charter.

Membership:

The Board shall appoint a minimum of three (3) non-executive Directors to serve on the Committee and shall designate one of the Committee members to serve as the Chair of the Committee, provided that the approval of any such appointment or designation includes at least a majority of the independent Directors (as defined in the applicable NASDAQ listing standards).

Each of the Committee members shall be independent, as determined in accordance with the rules of NASDAQ and the SEC as in effect from time to time.

In addition, at least a majority of the Committee members shall be independent within the meaning of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code.

Each member shall also be a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3, as that Rule may be amended from time to time, promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and a minimum of two (2) Committee members shall be “outside directors” within the meaning of Regulation Section 1.162-27(e)(3) under the Internal Revenue Code, as that regulation may be amended from time to time.

Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, then it shall take effect immediately upon its receipt by the Chairman of the Board; unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Committee Resources:

The Committee shall have the sole authority to select, retain, and supervise any advisors as the Committee deems necessary, in its discretion, to fulfill its mandates under this Charter. The Committee shall also have the authority to compensate, at the expense of the Company, all such advisors and employ such resources as are necessary to fulfill its mandates under this Charter. Without limiting the foregoing, the Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any compensation consulting firm used by the Committee to assist in the evaluation of Director, Executive Chairman (if applicable), CEO, and/or Senior Staff Compensation, and shall be responsible for approving any such firm's fees and other retention terms. Prior to retaining an advisor, and from time to time as the Committee deems appropriate, the Committee shall consider all factors relevant to that person's independence from management, including the following:

- (a) the provision of other services to the Company by the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity that employs the advisor;
- (b) the amount of fees received from the Company by the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity that employs the advisor, as a percentage of the total revenue of the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity that employs the advisor;
- (c) the policies and procedures of the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity that employs the advisor, that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
- (d) any business or personal relationship between the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity that employs the advisor, and any member of the Committee;
- (e) any stock of the Company owned by the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity that employs the advisor;
- (f) any business or personal relationship between the advisor or, if applicable, the person or entity employing the advisor, and any executive officer of the Company; and
- (g) any other factor specified in the NASDAQ listing guide or other applicable legal requirements.

The Committee shall conduct the independence assessment with respect to any advisor that provides advice to the Committee, other than:

- (i) in-house legal counsel; and
- (ii) any advisor whose role is limited to the following activities, for which no disclosure would be required under Item 407(e)(3)(iii) of Regulation S-K:
  - (A) consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation, in favor of executive officers or Directors, and that is available generally to all salaried employees; or
  - (B) providing information that either is not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the advisor, and about which the advisor does not provide advice.

Nothing herein requires an advisor to be independent, only that the Committee consider the enumerated independence factors before selecting or receiving advice from an advisor. The Committee may select or receive advice from any advisor it prefers, including ones that are not independent, after considering the independence factors enumerated above.
